

Marking symbols for use across the school.

EYFS and Key Stage 1	Key Stage 2
English and Foundation Subjects
 Drawn underneath a word shows an incorrect spelling.	 Drawn underneath a word shows an incorrect spelling.
 A circle around a letter shows a letter written back to front.	 A circle around a letter shows a letter written back to front.
 This is an assessment piece and the marking is in another place.	 This is an assessment piece and the marking is in another place.
 Verbal feedback given.	 Verbal feedback given.
 Task completed with adult support.	 Task completed with adult support.
 Task completed independently.	 Task completed independently.
 Remember your finger spaces between words.
Maths lessons
 A circle around a number shows that it has been written incorrectly (e.g. back to front).	 A circle around a number shows that it has been written incorrectly (e.g. back to front).
 A dot after an answer shows that it is incorrect. Where children have time to do corrections in the lesson, they should write their correction after the dot.	 A dot after an answer shows that it is incorrect. Where children have time to do corrections in the lesson, they should write their correction after the dot.